Screw Ned Stark and his crappy premonition “Winter is coming”. If you consider yourself a summer child (like I do), get ready, because NYC’s hottest outdoor spots are ready for you. Here’s the breakdown on where to go to catch some vitamin D and some killer drinks:

The Beach at The Dream Downtown: 355 W 16th St (Chelsea): Special Mexican-inspired menu available at the poolside venue at Dream Downtown; and Full Marble Lane’s menu is also available al fresco; Hand-crafted cocktails available by the pitcher. Can you say BIKINI!
